

MGS NAMED 2015 BUSINESS OF THE YEAR

March 2016

MGS Mfg. Group was named 2015 Business of the Year by the Germantown Chamber of Commerce in March of this year. MGS was selected for the award based on the following accomplishments:

- MGS proudly employs over 500 people in the area

- We experienced our fifth consecutive year of sales growth and reached our highest-ever revenues in 2015

- The opening of our new distribution center in Oak Creek made a positive impact on the local economy and created additional jobs

- MGS continues to be a strong supporter of students through educational platforms, such as participating in career fairs and providing facility tours

- Our established apprenticeship program sponsors and mentors employees who work to obtain their apprenticeship certificate.

- We support our community through various activities, including annual food drives, collecting donations for the Toys for Tots Program, and partnering with United Way to participate in the recent Have A Heart sandwich making event.

The Germantown Chamber of Commerce held its annual awards banquet on Tuesday, March 22 to celebrate the recipients of the 2015 Community Awards.

As recipient of the award, MGS received commemorative plaques from the State of Wisconsin, Washington County, the Germantown Chamber of Commerce and the Village of Germantown.

Other award recipients include BMO Harris Bank of Germantown (Business of the Year – Service category), George Herro (Citizen of the Year), St. Boniface/St. Gabriel Food Pantry (Service Organization of the Year), and Gary Weiss (Rising Star Achievement Award).
